1. Comment. This report supplements the report on the "Far East Cominform" carried in the 25 September 1951 issue of the Tokyo Yomiuri Shimbun which quoted reports from the Hong Kong Hsin Wen T'ien Ti and the Hong Kong Hsing Tao Jih Pao. The press gave variations in the names of the representatives of the Far East Cominform as follows: Japanese representative KURAHARA Koreto; Democratic Republic of Vietnam representatives Cho Ko O and Koku Etsu; Soviet representatives Yakovlev, former First Deputy Chairman of the Eastern Operations Committee, and Savanov, former Deputy Chairman of the Overseas Cultural Operations Committee; Burmese representatives Tsu Tan So and Thakin Rachon; and Mongolian representative Wuruniato. The organization of the Far East Cominform appears to be the same as that of the Far East Intelligence Bureau reported to have been organized in Peiping in August 1951. See [REDACTED]
